Required items: Long sleeved shirt, pants (no shorts), and shoes that cover the ankles are required to be worn during class.

25WC53 Aviation (2025 version)

For most of history, people have dreamed of flying, imagining how it would feel to soar through the sky like an eagle or hover in midair like a hummingbird, to float on unseen currents, free of Earth's constant tug, able to travel great distances and to rise above any obstacle. Today, through aviation, we can not only join the birds but also fly farther, faster, and higher than they ever could.

25WC5 Camping

Camping is one of the best-known methods of the Scouting movement. When he founded the Scouting movement in the early 1900s, Robert Baden-Powell encouraged every Scout to learn the art of living out-of-doors. He believed a young person able to take care of himself while camping would have the confidence to meet life's other challenges, too.

This badge cannot be completed at camp.

25WC8 Crime Prevention, Fingerprinting

Preventing crime, which can be as simple as reducing the opportunities for crime to occur, is far less costly than apprehending and bringing legal action against those who break the law and it helps save people from the anguish of being victims.

Class Catalog

2025 Winter Camp: Winter Camp at Clements Scout Ranch/Trevor Rees-Jones Scout Camp/Camp Meisenbach

In earning the Fingerprinting merit badge, Scouts will learn about and use an important technique that is used by law enforcement officers, along with other materials like matching dental records and DNA sampling, to help identify amnesia victims, missing persons, abducted children, and others.

25WC47 Extreme Mountain Man

This is a special program for Scouts who are at least 15 years old. All participants who sign up through CampMaster will have three days to expand upon the skills of the early pioneer. Your skills with a black powder rifle will be tested at our egg shoot. Sharpen your skill with a throwing hawk at the Card Corner Challenge. Survival cooking skills will be tested on the overnigher to Fort Bridger and then use your trail marking skills to help you get back. Learn the skill of tanning a hide, a critical skill a Mountain Man used to trade for goods with the Indians & civilized man. Blacksmithing will be a cornerstone skill in the Extreme Mountain Man program and your Scouts will learn what it takes to make a knife and sheath, their own flint and steel fire starting kit and build a long-term shelter on the frontier. The extreme mountain man will also be called upon to teach some of these new skills to a younger Scout. This is an all-day program - Scouts will NOT have time for merit badges. Scouts MUST be 15 or older. Cost for this program includes a breakfast and a dinner that they will eat in the area (total of 2 meals).

25WC13 Fish and Wildlife Management

Wildlife management is the science and art of managing the wildlife - both animals and fish - with which we share our planet. Maintaining the proper balance and the dynamics that go with it requires humankind's attention. We use this stewardship tool to help minimize or eradicate the possibility of extinction of any given species. We want our descendants to have the opportunity to experience the same animal diversity that we now enjoy.

25WC37 Rifle Shooting (Option A - Modern Cartridge)

Unless a rifle is handled incorrectly or recklessly, it is not dangerous. A rifle, like any other precision instrument, is manufactured to perform a specific task and can do so at no risk to the user or others. By earning this badge, Scouts can develop their shooting skills while learning safe practices.

25WC29 Sports

Millions of people participate in sports every year. For some the appeal is the close friendships that come with being part of a team. Some revel in the joy of victory and lessons of defeat. For some, the personal fitness is so important that exercise becomes a daily need. And still others desire the feeling of achievement, that feeling of measurable improvement that comes with dedication to a sport.

25WA8 IOLS Intro to Outdoor Leader Skills (S11)

Welcome to Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills training. The Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills (IOLS) course builds and expands on the concepts and themes introduced in Scoutmaster Position-Specific Training and provides Scouters with the confidence to take youth into the outdoors.

Specifically, this hands-on program gives adult leaders a practical introduction to the patrol method of a youth-led troop by teaching many of the practical outdoor skills they need to lead Scouts in the out-of-doors.

The skills sessions presented in Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills closely follow the Scout Handbook and are meant to serve as an adult training outline. By using these skills sessions in conjunction with the Scout Handbook, trainers can be sure new leaders are proficient in many of the basic outdoor skills through First Class rank, and gain exposure to the patrol method and numerous teaching methods and learning games. Each skills session references specific chapters in the handbook and highlights the advancement requirements.
