

CAMPFIRE ASHES

The Campfire Ashes / Spirit of the Fire

Ashes taken from a campfire are sprinkled into the flames of the next campfire. The next morning, when the ashes are cold, they are stirred, and each Scout takes some along to mix with his next campfire. If more than one Scout brings ashes to the same campfire, the lists are pooled, with the dates and places of all campfires recorded and passed on.

It is traditional that only those present at the ceremony carry away ashes from that ceremony.

“We carry our friendship within us
in these ashes from other campfires with other comrades
in other lands.

May the joining of the dead fires
with the leaping flames symbolize once more the unbroken chain that binds Scouts and Guides around the world.

With greetings from Scouts everywhere
these ashes have been carried around the globe continuously since 1907.

These ashes have been carried by Scouts around the world, and have come from fires kindled in 62 countries:

Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Columbia, Czechoslovakia, Denmark,
Egypt, England, Falklands, Finland, France, Germany,
Ghana, Greece, Guam, Guatemala, Holland, Honduras,

America. (MN)

CAMPFIRE ASHES

These ashes were started by many different people in different places.

The first key individual is Robert (Bob) Bouma, of Jemez Pueblo, NM, who collected the ashes beginning in 1933 in Iowa and continuing into the early Philmont collection. Bob's collection had the first Wood Badge course (573-1), and continued collecting major and Southwestern events until it merged with the present stream at SC-130 in 1978. It probably continues with other Great Southwest Council collections.

The second key individual is Ken Kittleberger, of Maryland. Initially, Ken was a Scouter in Transatlantic Council, Germany. He found the tradition over there, and brought it to the TAC Wood Badge courses, from which it started to spread.

A third individual is Sarah Goudy, a long time Girl Scouter and Boy Scouter, now living in Kansas, who had a campfire stick she had been burning for 20 years, bringing in a whole new line.

A fourth person is Sarah Cochran Davis, now married to a nomadic professional Scouter, who as a youth attending Wider Opportunities brought back much of the US Girl Scout tradition to the High Plains of New Mexico.

A fifth person is Joe Fisher of Colorado, who brought many more older items from an unknown Scouter who attended Wood Badge NE-VI-29, including the 1933 Hungarian Jamboree.

Two more Scouters are Mark Russel of Odessa, TX, who brought in a good bit of Texas and Southwest tradition, and Carolyn Carter of Albuquerque, who updated the New Mexico side.

Most recently, Johnny and Sue Millard of Las Vegas, NV brought in a full page of California and East Coast listings. Theirs started with the merged Kittleberger/Bouma lists, which had split off and been growing for 20 years since 1979. The thread rejoined in Las Vegas.

John Halvorson of Roswell, NM took up the torch in Conquistador Council.

The list from SR-CS-10 (Cub Scout Wood Badge) took us back to 1907 (although gathered from Brownsea in 1985, the ashes probably do date to then). This listing brought in many campfires from Europe, Cub Leader Training around the world and many campfires from the North-Eastern U.S. – This list and the ashes associated with it were contributed to us by Gary Hill (Dallas, TX), although not compiled by him personally.

Many others, on many different occasions, have contributed to this list, youth and adult alike, boys and girls, women and men, Americans and Scouters of many other nations. It crosses and recrosses paths as more Scouters enjoy this unique way of making a Scouting collection.

George Crowl of Jersey Village, TX, compiled the main list of the three consolidated here. He picked up the habit from Ken in 1975.

This list contains a rough estimate of 2,500 campfires whose ashes have been carried forward over a span of 99 years of Scouting. This listing is a combination of lists carried by Rob Higgins, Paul Stauffer and Gary Hill – all from Dallas, TX who combined the ashes from three long branches. The duplications from these lists have been culled out to make this one cohesive path and not reflect were paths had obviously crossed and merged on various occasions over the years.

Yours in Scouting,
Wood Badge 78 (SR-784 571-78) Staffers

Rob Higgins – Dallas Texas (list editor)
Gary Hill – Dallas, Texas.
Paul Stauffer - Richardson, Texas
